The following points were discussed in the meeting.

1. Chairman - IQAC welcomed the members.
2. Chairman - IQAC stressed on the need of taking a holistic view towards quality excellence instead of only concentrating on NBA Accreditations. He said that the education system has now shifted from input based to outcome based. Taking into account the expectations of all stakeholders and also the socio-economic situation, macro-level and micro-level plans should be made and executed. The macro level plan includes deciding teaching strategy and to develop out of box thinking capacity of students.
3. He also suggested conducting another round of SWOT analysis and feeling that IQAC could handle this responsibility successfully.

4. The result analysis reports were submitted and the reasons for poor performance in certain departments were discussed,
5. The chairman – IQAC suggested that the R&D cell to conduct more number of workshops and seminars based on recent trends and technologies.
6. The members suggested that the activities of NSS, YRC and other Clubs should be periodically reviewed.
6. The next meeting objectives were framed.
7. The meeting ended with the vote of thanks to the chair by Dr.G.Durgadevi, coordinator, IQAC.

The following points were discussed in the meeting.

1. The twelfth meeting of all the members of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) was convened by the chairman, IQAC, Dr.T.Saravanan, on Saturday, 19th January, 2019, at 10.30 a.m. in the IQAC office at the Institute premises at Chennai. The chairperson extended his welcome to all the newly joined members and requested all the members for their valuable suggestions for the improvement in both academic as well the administrative activities of the institution.
2. The functions and the role of IQAC were highlighted in supporting the quality in both academic and administrative activities of the institution.
3. Chairman, IQAC initiated the discussion about the minutes of the 11th IQAC meeting. Chairman IQAC, appreciated the efforts being made by the members of IQAC and the decisions taken in the previous meetings and chalk out a road map for quality assurance in the University through this very important group of learned members.
4. All departments did a comparative analysis of results 2018-2019 (odd semester) with their earlier performance and with the performance of their neighboring institutions.
5. Comprehensive committees for wide ranging appointment of faculty and administrative staff to understand the targets set by IQAC as a policy for the year explored. It was concluded that it gives more contribution of the larger staff of the institution. Members agreed to the proposition as a matter of policy.

3. A team comprising senior faculty members from each department is formed to conduct internal audit which gives the detailed report about the academic activities of the department.
4. Ms.M.Sindhuja, presented the updates on R&D activities. She also emphasized the importance of receiving funds/grants for Research and Development.
6. Chairman, IQAC explained about the performance of various committees that had been functioning in the institute. Director, IQAC presented the report of the activities during the odd semester of 2018-2019 and the report was discussed with all the members.
7. Future plans for the activities during the even semester of 2018-2019 planned and chairman insisted the members to increase the pass percentage.
7. For the successful completion of all the resolved activities of IQAC, the Chairman, IQAC be authorized to replace/add one/two members in all the committees as necessitated in changing circumstances. However, the external experts shall be nominated by chairman on the request of Director, IQAC for the purpose. Further, the coordinator of the committee concerned shall initiate the process of meetings in consultation with Chairman of the respective Committee.
8. Chairman IQAC briefed on the mission of IQAC and stated that the IQAC has to play a major role by guiding and supporting the Institute's efforts in enhancement, assurance and sustenance of quality in all activities of the Institute towards promoting academic excellence.
9. The meeting ended with the vote of thanks to the chair by Dr.G.Durgadevi, coordinator, IQAC.
