MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

Data Science Tech Institute (also, DSTI School of Engineering), France

And

Advisewise Study Abroad Consultancy, Thanjavur, Tamil Nadu, India, represented by its Founder Mr. Parthiban Kannan, hereinafter referred to as the "Facilitation Partner."

In Partnership with

New Prince Shri Bhavani College of Engineering & Technology, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as the "College"

About Data Science Tech Institute (DSTI School of Engineering)

DSTI School of Engineering was founded to bridge the gap between academic knowledge and the practical skills needed in the rapidly evolving fields of data science, AI, and cybersecurity. As the first specialist school in France for data, AI, and cybersecurity, DSTI offers globally recognised and accredited degrees. With strong industry partnerships, including collaborations with AWS, SAS, and Microsoft, DSTI ensures that its curriculum is aligned with real-world demands, significantly enhancing students' career prospects. Our campuses in the French Riviera, Paris, and online provide a comprehensive and flexible learning experience tailored to meet the needs of today's dynamic workforce.

Background

This is a non-binding Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that is intended to clarify the nature and extent of the complementary activities that might be undertaken for the mutual benefit of the two parties.

This MOU does not create binding or legal obligations on either party. This MOU is not intended to, and does not create any right, benefit, or trust responsibility, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or equity, by either party, its officers, employees, or agents against the other party, its officers, employees or agents.

Nothing in this MOU is intended to or should be construed as creating the relationship of co-partners, joint ventures, or an association among the parties, nor shall any party, its employees, agents, students, or representatives be considered employees, agents, or representatives of any other party.

1. Purpose

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) serves as a written understanding of potential collaborations between Data Science Tech Institute (DSTI School of Engineering), France, New Prince Shri Bhavani College of Engineering & Technology, with the facilitation and coordination support of Advisewise Study Abroad Consultancy, as described in Section 3 below.

This MoU establishes a framework through which DSTI and the Partner Institution may engage in academic cooperation, student mobility, and institutional collaboration, while Advisewise Study Abroad Consultancy shall act as the official intermediary and facilitation partner to support communication, coordination, and implementation of mutually agreed activities.

2. No Commitment of Resources

Commitments of specific institutional resources, including but not limited to personnel time, facilities, intellectual property, and/or financial resources, are beyond the scope of this MOU.

Nothing in this MOU obligates the other party to commit or transfer any funds, assets, or other resources in support of projects or activities between the two parties.

Neither party shall be responsible for costs or expenditures incurred by the other in the conduct of the programs contemplated hereby, except as expressly provided in a separate written agreement signed by both parties.

3. Potential Collaborations and/or Exchanges

Both institutions may encourage the potential development of the following types of collaborations and/or exchanges:

- a. Visits and informal exchanges of faculty, scholars and administrators in specific areas of education, research and outreach.
- b. Collaboration in undergraduate and graduate education.
- c. Joint conferences, symposia, or other scientific meetings on subjects of mutual interest.
- d. Exchange of academic information and materials.
- e. Joint research programs and collaborations.
- f. Other exchange and/or cooperation activities to which both parties agree in writing

4. Responsibilities of the Parties to be Set Forth in Separate Agreements

The two parties recognize that the implementation of any agreed upon activity listed in Section 3 above will depend upon the interests and expertise of the individuals involved and the availability of financial resources, facilities, and other resources.

Accordingly, the implementation of any specific exchange and/or cooperative activity contemplated in Section 3 shall be separately negotiated and determined between the two institutions and documented in a separate written agreement signed by both parties.

5. Advertising and Publicity

Both the institutions may with prior written approval of each other, publicly advertise the collaboration under this MoU among students, staff etc.

Where reasonably possible, in making advertisements or public announcements in relation to this MoU, each institution shall acknowledge the participation of the other institution and the contribution that other institution has made if any.

6. Compliance with Applicable Laws, Regulations, and Policies

It is further expected that both parties will be compliant with all applicable State and federal laws and regulations while building new programs.

7. Indemnification

Each party (the "Indemnifying Party") agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other party (the "Indemnified Party"), its officers, employees, and agents, from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities, costs, or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of or in connection with any third-party claims related to the Indemnifying Party's breach of this MoU or its gross negligence or wilful misconduct in connection with any activities under this MoU.

This indemnification obligation shall survive the termination or expiration of this MoU.

8. Duration and Option to Amend, Extend or Terminate this MOU

This MOU will become effective when the last required signature is obtained by all parties.

This MOU will remain in effect for five (5) years, not to exceed five years beyond the effective signature date.

This MOU may be renewed or amended by mutual agreement of the parties and shall be in writing and executed by an authorized representative of each party.

Either party may terminate this MOU at any time and for any reasons by providing written notice of such termination to the other party.

Any termination of this MOU shall be without penalty.

If this MOU is terminated, neither the Affiliate nor the College/University shall be liable to the other for any monetary or other losses that may result.

Notice Period

Either party may terminate this MoU by providing written notice to the other party at least sixty (60) days prior to the intended date of termination.

Such notice shall clearly state the reasons for termination and any ongoing obligations or activities that may need to be addressed before the termination date.

9. Confidentiality

The parties undertake to keep confidential and not disclose the contents of this MOU as well as all information disclosed to or obtained by the parties from each other pursuant to this MOU, and other information or documents that may come into possession of the Parties in connection with performance of their obligation under this MOU.

Confidential Information of a party (Disclosing Party) means and includes all unpatented inventions, ideas, know-how, concepts, trade secrets, processes, techniques, software, products and all other unregistered or unpatented Intellectual Property, financial, sensitive and business information and all other commercially valuable information of the Disclosing Party, in any form, which is by its nature confidential or which is designated by the Disclosing Party as confidential to it and all copies, notes and records and all related information generated by using such information but excluding Course IP.

If a Party discloses confidential information to the other Party, the receiving Party undertakes to maintain the confidentiality, shall use the information only as is necessary to fulfil the agreed purposes of the MOU and shall not disclose the information except as authorized by the disclosing Party or as required by law.

Duration of Confidentiality

The obligations of confidentiality set forth in this MoU shall remain in effect during the term of this MoU and for a period of two (2) years following the termination or expiration of this MoU, whichever is later.

This obligation shall survive the termination or expiration of this MoU.

10. Non-Exclusivity

This MOU shall not be construed as to vest obligations of exclusivity upon the signatories.

Other similar Memoranda or Agreements may be entered into freely by both parties with any other third parties, organizations, and/or institutions.

11. No Permission to Use Names or Trademarks

Nothing herein allows either party to use the name or trademarks of the other, either expressly or by implication, in any publicity, solicitation, or advertisement without the express written approval of the other party to this MOU. Neither Party shall do any act that would violate the Intellectual Property rights of the other party.
